COMPLAINT (S)

Preliminary Statement

This is a civil rights action filed by NEHEMIAH NASH, a state prisoner, for damages and injunctive relief under 42 USC § 1983, alleging the deprivation of his right to Free Speech, Access to the Courts, Free from unreasonable Search and Seizure and Due Process, in violation of the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the US Constitution.

Jurisdiction.

(1) The Court has jurisdiction over the plaintiff's claims of violation of Federal constitutional rights under 28 USC §§ 1331, 1343 (3) and (4) and 2201.

Parties

(2) The plaintiff, NEHEMIAH NASH was incarcerated at Southport Correctional Facility ("SOUTHPORT") during the events described in this complaint.

(3) At all times pertinent to this Complaint, defendant MICHAEL MCGINNIS was employed by the Department of Corrections as Superintendent of the Southport, and was responsible for implementation of all applicable laws and regulations at Southport. Defendant KATHLEEN A. WASHBURN was employed by the Department of Corrections as Senior Mail and Supply Clerk, and together with defendants MARK J. SHEREMETA, RAYMOND R. KEENAN, DOUGLAS D. WESTERVELT, CHRISTOPHER F. KAMAS, LARRY C. GLEASON was also employed by the Department of Corrections as members of the prison correctional staff at Southport, and along with STANLEY SEPIC, a sergeant therein was in charge of handling incoming and outgoing prisoner mail.

(4) Defendant (?) COLLINS is a correctional officer employed at Southport whose name is presently unknown to plaintiff.

(5) Each 'defendant' as listed above is sued both in their individual and official capacity.

(6) All the defendants have acted, and continue to act, under color of state law at all times relevant to this complaint.

Facts:

(7) Defendants KATHLEEN A. WASHBURN, MARK J. SHEREMETA, RAYMOND R. KEENAN, CHRISTOPHER F. KAMAS, DOUGLAS D. WESTERVELT, LARRY C. GLEASON, (?) COLLINS, acting both individually and jointly failed to mail and deliver, a considerable amount of correspondence, which plaintiff properly submitted to them for mailing or was in line to receive during this period of incarceration at Southport.

(8) The various pieces of such correspondence dealt with legal, political and personal matters.

(9) None of such correspondence threatened, contemplated or included plans for any criminal activity what so ever; none threatened or posed any clear and present danger of physical harm or violence to any person; none was obscene, and none was written in any form of code.

(10) Said unmailed correspondence includes but is not limited to letter(s) dated August 13th 2003 to a JONNIE L. COCHRAN, JR. (THE COCHRAN FIRM, SCHNEIDER KUD & S), and QUEENS CHILDRENS PSYCHIATRIC CENTER, along with the lack in deliverance of an assortment of letters, from numerous person(s) and agencies, of them including, but not to be limited to a LINDA WRIGHT, MAUREEN ROWNS and LEE VAL NASH.

- (11) Correspondence described in Paragraph (5) 8, 9, 10 above failed to reach the addressees to whom destined as a proximate result of interference or confiscation by defendants MARK J. SHEREMETA, RAYMOND R. KEENAN, CHRISTOPHER F. KAMAS, DOUGLAS D. WESTERVELT, LARRY C. GLEASON, (?) COLLINS and KATHLEEN A. WASHBURN and each of them, acting both individually and in a concert of action wherein each said defendant acquiesced, condoned, encouraged and assisted the actions of the others in a deliberate effort to single out plaintiff for harsh, arbitrary, and discriminatory treatment with regard to his correspondence in knowing disregard of applicable state and prisoner mail regulations therein effect as set forth in USCA Const. Amend. 1, 6 MSJ, Art. 134, 10 USCA §934-US v. Fox 48 MS 518, review granted, 50 MS 196, affirmed 50 MS 444-Thornburgh v. Abbot, 490 US 401, 109 S. Ct. 1874, 1878-79, 104 L. Ed 2d 459 (1987); Prounier v. Martinez, 416 US 396, 413, 94 S. Ct. 1800, 1811, 40 L. Ed 2d. 224 (1974); 60 Am. Jur 2d Penal and Correctional etc., §§ 50, 53 and 56; Witherow v. Paff, 52 F.3d 264 (1995).
- (12) Said correspondence was in fact permitted by the afore said mail regulations.
- (13) Defendants MICHAEL McGINNIS, STANLEY SERIOL, JAMES P. MEEHAN (sergeant), GREGORY T. MANOS (sergeant) and KATHLEEN A. WASHBURN, encouraged, directed, ratified, and knowingly acquiesced in the actions of defendants MARK J. SHEREMETA, RAYMOND R. KEENAN, CHRISTOPHER F. KAMAS, DOUGLAS D. WESTERVELT, LARRY C. GLEASON, (?) COLLINS, as described above, and did so both individually and in pursuance of a common plan, or design, deliberately singling out plaintiff for harsh, arbitrary and discriminatory treatment with regard to his correspondence, in knowing disregard of the fact that plaintiff's constitutional rights were thereby violated.
- (14) The above described actions by defendants and each of them, deprivation plain-title of his civil rights including his rights to free speech and due process, as guaranteed by the First, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, to the United States Constitution and by Title 42 of the USC §1983.

Claims to Relief

- (15) Plaintiff herein realleges and incorporates by reference, Paragraphs 7, 8, 9 and 10 and each and every allegation contained in such Paragraph, as though fully set forth herein.
- (16) The actions of defendants KATHLEEN A. WASHBURN, MARK J. SIEREMETA, RAYMOND R. KEENAN, CHRISTOPHER F. KAMAS, DOUGLAS D. WESTERVELT, LARRY C. GLEASON and (?) CORNUS, in depriving plaintiff without need or provocation his correspondence privileges, constituted the violation(s) of free speech and due process, as guaranteed by the First, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, and of interest to the penological goals of incarceration under the law of the President's Comm'n; The Courts 15; SUGRANK, CRIME LAW and CORRECTIONS §8 (1900), BOLD, Recent Trends in Criminal Sentencing, Fed. Prob., March 1963, p. 3; Hart, The Aims of the Criminal Law, 23 LAW & CONTEMP. PROBS 401, 402-06 (1958).
- (17) The failure of defendants MICHAEL MCGINNIS and STANLEY SEPICK, to take disciplinary or other action to curb the known pattern of psychological abuse of inmate by defendants KATHLEEN A. WASHBURN, MARK J. SIEREMETA, RAYMOND R. KEENAN, CHRISTOPHER F. KAMAS, DOUGLAS D. WESTERVELT, LARRY C. GLEASON and (?) CORNUS, constituted deliberate indifference, and contributed to and proximately caused the above described violation(s), as well as of the Eighth Amendment rights, secured by the US Constitution.
- (18) The actions of all defendants mentioned above, denied the plaintiff his right to be free from personal humiliation and mental anguish and injuries to the quality of his life; the like-placement in segregation and careless loss of privilege(s); emotional harm; emotional distress, limiting plaintiff's ability to work, causing nightmares; loss of his friends; and discouragement in keeping healthy relationship with the community.

 (14) Said actions have caused actual damages to plaintiff in his individual and personal capacities of interest to the penological goals of incarceration, due to defendants' 'continuous' aggravated, callous, and malicious character.

Relief Requested

WHEREFORE, plaintiff requests that the court grant the following relief:

A. ISSUE A DECLARATORY/JUDGEMENT STATING THAT:

- (1) The psychological abuse of the plaintiff by defendants WASHBURN, SHEREMETA, KEENAN, KAMAS, WESTERVILT, CREASON and COLLINS violated the plaintiff's right under the Eighth Amendment's goal to produce a "healthy rehabilitative environment," and constituted an assault upon plaintiff's First, Fourth and Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments' rights.
- (2) Defendants McGINNIS' and SERIOUS' failure to take action to curb the psychological abuse of prisoner violated the plaintiff's rights under the Eighth Amendment to the US Constitution and constituted a continuous assault upon the "healthy rehabilitative environment" as depicted above.
- (3) Defendant(s) WASHBURN, SHEREMETA, KEENAN, KAMAS, WESTERVILT, CREASON and COLLINS' actions in depriving plaintiff of his correspondence privileges and defendant(s) McGINNIS and SERIOUS' actions in sustaining it, violated the plaintiff's rights under the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.
- (4) Defendant McGINNIS' actions in failing to provide a "healthy rehabilitative environment" and productively stabilized atmosphere for the plaintiff, violated and continues to violate, the plaintiff's rights under the Eighth Amendment.

B. ISSUE AN INJUNCTION ORDERING DEFENDANT MCGINNIS TO:

- (1) Advocate 'stricter' obedience to the SUPERVISION and CONTROL of INMATE PACKAGES and CORRESPONDENCE, and harsher punishments for violations thereof.
- (2) Observe 'impartial' means of investigating claims of violations therein, and permit 'immediate' relief here at 'this' Court in place of.
- (3) Carry out without delay the attentive care necessary for the 'fairness' involved.

C. ISSUE AN INJUNCTION ORDERING DEFENDANTS MCGINNIS, SEPIOL, MEEHAN, AND NAKOS OR THEIR AGENTS TO:

- (1) Immediately arrange for the plaintiff's mail to both be delivered and mailed on time.
- (2) Release the plaintiff from the punitive inflictions subject to, and restore all rights and privileges relevant to.

D. ISSUE AN INJUNCTION:

- (1) Granting a motion for a Temporary Restraining Order as a Preliminary Injunction.

E. AWARD COMPENSATORY DAMAGES IN THE FOLLOWING AMOUNTS:

- (1) $9,380⁰⁰ jointly and severally against defendants, SITERMETA, KEENAN, KAMAS, WESTERVELT, GLEASON, COLLINS and WASHBURN for the psychological and emotional injuries sustained as a result of the plaintiff's deprivation.
- (2) $7,000⁰⁰ jointly and severally against defendant McG-

INNIS and SERIO for the punishment, psychological and emotional injury resulting from their denial of due process in connection with the plaintiff's numerous complaints, both scribed and verbatim, about their failure to provide an adequately positive "atmosphere".

F. AWARD PUNITIVE DAMAGES IN THE FOLLOWING AMOUNTS:

- (1) $180⁰⁰ each against defendants WASHBURN, SHEREMETA, KEENAN, KAMAS, WESTERVELT, GLEASON and COLLINS.
- (2) $180⁰⁰ each against defendants McGINNIS and SERIO.

G. GRANT SUCH OTHER RELIEF AS IT MAY APPEAR THAT PLAINTIFF IS ENTITLED.

[SECOND CLAIM]

Parties
